

JANET LANE MNZM SCHOLARSHIP

Please read these terms and conditions carefully to ensure your application is considered.

- Incomplete applications or applications received after 5pm, Friday 16 December 2022 will not be considered
- You must be a New Zealand citizen or resident
- You must have full-time employment or an offer of full-time employment in the automotive industry
- Applicants will have ideally completed an NZQA recognised programme of study at Level 5 and demonstrated leadership qualities both at work and within their community
- Applicants will have successfully held a supervisory management position for a minimum of two years
- The scholarship will not be awarded to applicants that are enrolled in another training programme with any other tertiary provider
- The scholarship must be used within one year of it being awarded
- The scholarship can only be awarded once per person and is not transferable to another person
- The scholarship is not transferable to another place of employment should you change employer before the scholarship is completed, unless the new employer is within the same industry and they are willing to support you; and your previous employer and MITO both agree to the transfer
- This scholarship pays the programme fee for a Bachelor of Applied Management with a Te Pūkenga subsidiary (broadly covering business systems, HR, accounting, operations and production management); Graduate Diploma programmes (subject endorsed) with affiliated universities; or general management, leadership, governance and strategy courses with Harvard University (both virtual and onsite)
- MITO will publish details of the scholarship recipients and may ask for further information to help promote MITO's training programmes and the scholarship programme
- A selection panel will be convened by the MITO Director. The panel reserves the right to request further supporting information. The panel's decision is final.
