

MITO KICKSTART - MĀORI SCHOLARSHIP

Please read these terms and conditions carefully to ensure your application is considered.

- This scholarship pays the first-year fees for a MITO training programme commencing in 2023.
- The Government's Fees-Free policy provides up to two years of free fees for industry training for eligible learners and eligible apprenticeships and traineeship programmes. If you are eligible for the Government's Fees-Free policy you will not be eligible for this scholarship. Visit mito.nz/free for more information.
- You must be a New Zealand citizen or resident.
- The scholarship will not be awarded to applicants that are enrolled in another training programme with any other tertiary provider.
- The scholarship must be used within one year of it being awarded.
- The scholarship can only be awarded once per person and is not transferable to another person.
- The scholarship is not transferable to another place of employment should you change employer before the scholarship is completed, unless the new employer is within the same industry and they are willing to support you; and your previous employer and MITO both agree to the transfer.
- MITO will publish details of the scholarship recipients and may ask for further information to help promote MITO's training programmes and the scholarship programme.
- A selection panel will be convened by the MITO Director. The panel reserves the right to request further supporting information. The panel's decision is final.
- Incomplete applications or applications received after 5pm, Friday 16 December 2022 will not be considered.
