

TYRES MICRO-CREDENTIAL SCHOLARSHIP

Please read these terms and conditions carefully to ensure your application is considered.

- This scholarship pays the programme fee for the MITO Tyres micro-credentials applied for, with training commencing in 2025.
- All micro-credential scholarship programmes awarded for must be completed within twelve months of the start date of the first. Please note that the four micro-credentials have a combined estimated completion time of eleven months.
- It will not be awarded to applicants that are already enrolled in any MITO training programme, or another training programme with any other tertiary provider.
- You must be working full-time in the automotive industry.
- You must be a New Zealand citizen or resident.
- The scholarship can only be awarded once per person and is not transferable to another person.
- The scholarship is not transferable to another place of employment should you change employer before the scholarship is completed, unless the new employer is within the same industry and they are willing to support you; and your previous employer and MITO both agree to the transfer.
- MITO will publish details of the scholarship recipients and may ask for further information to help promote MITO's training programmes and the scholarship programme.
- A selection panel will be convened by MITO's Executive Director. The panel reserves the right to request further supporting information. The panel's decision is final.
- Incomplete applications or applications received after 5pm, 14 July will not be considered.
