

This document shows how the Extractive micro-credentials map to the Safe Work Instrument and includes updates from the Health and Safety at Work (Mining Operations and Quarrying Operations—Prescribed Competency Requirements for Certificates of Competence) Amendment Safe Work Instrument 2025 (commencement date June 2025).

Schedule 1 - Site Senior Executive unit standards

Unit No	Title	Micro-credential	Chosen course date	Standards assessed (✓)
7142	Demonstrate knowledge of the application of regulatory requirements to manage an extractive site	Legislation and Regulatory Requirement (5295) – 7142 only
16810	Develop a Workplace Emergency Management Plan	Micro-credential in development with HAR - "Risk & Emergency Management"
28739	Establish and maintain risk management systems
29553	Demonstrate operational knowledge of New Zealand's Coordinated Incident Management System functions and structure	Applied Coordinated Incident Management (5303)
29554	Apply operational knowledge of New Zealand's Coordinated Incident Management System
32158	Demonstrate basic knowledge of New Zealand's Coordinated Incident Management System
27564	Demonstrate knowledge of leadership in an organisation	Leadership and Worker Health Risk Management (5270)
31761	Demonstrate knowledge of assessing, monitoring, and controlling risks to worker health in the extractive industries	US31761 not required for Site senior executive
28740	Establish and maintain the WHS management system	Micro-credential in development with HAR - "Health & safety management Systems"		